(Note: This prayer can be customized to your needs at any time throughout the year. You can mix and match the areas you are working on and fill in the blanks as needed!)

Dear Universe, I call in my angels, guides, loved ones who have passed and all those in my soul society — only those of the highest vibration — to be with me today.

I am asking for help in finding a new job that pays me X amount of more and makes me happy and feel fulfilled connected to my purpose. I ask that Archangel Aurora and Archangel Hope please assist me in creating this new beginning and aligning me with the signs and synchronicities to guide me to the perfect opportunity. I also call upon Saint Cajetan, the patron saint of job seekers to assist me in this process as well.

I am asking for help in discovering my deeper purpose regarding my work and career, and ask to be led toward meaningful work that pays me well and makes me happy. Tibetan Buddhist monk, Djwal Khul, and Archangel Chamuel, I ask for your assistance with this to lead me in the right direction.

I'm calling in Archangel Ariel, Roman Goddess Fortuna and Hindu Goddess Lakshmi to help me ignite the flow of more money and abundance in my life, and also hold on to the money I make. And I ask Archangel Jophiel to help me shift my mindset around money from negative and lack-based to positive and abundance-based and please help me maintain these positive thoughts.

I am asking for assistance in attracting a new [love relationship/friendships] into my life and ask Archangel Chamuel, Archangel Charity and Greek Goddess of love Aphrodite to help with this. Please bring me the person/people who are in my highest good, and help me recognize him/her when they arrive.

I am struggling in my relationship with X and am asking for help in creating more understanding, harmony and love between us. I ask Archangel Chamuel and Archangel Charity to assist me in repairing this relationship and any misunderstandings between us, and to mend any broken bonds. I also ask Archangel Raguel to heal any arguments and bring more harmony to this relationship, and Archangel Christine to assist us in releasing any judgement towards one another. [For romantic relationships: Hindu Goddess Parvati, I ask that you help me create more peace, joy and understanding in my relationship.]

I am asking for help with physical healing, specifically [explain your situation here]. I call in Archangel Raphael to please assist me in healing this totally and completely now, and please send me to the all people, doctors, modalities and healers that will help me do so, and please work with Greek God Apollo in this as well.

I am asking for help with healing myself emotionally on all levels, and I ask Saint John the Baptist to help me find balance, physically, emotionally and mentally now. Archangel Chamuel, please work with Archangel Raphael and Archangel Michael to help me heal from an anxiety I may be dealing with, and send me to the right resources that can assist me with this as well. I also ask for help with any depression I may be feeling, calling in the Irish Saint Dymphna to help with this and assist me in finding more balance.

I ask you to please send me any signs and synchronicities, ideas, opportunities, resources and people who can assist me now, and please help me recognize them when they arrive.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for for all you have done in the past, all you will do today, all you will do in the future.

Amen
